The Attorney General Eric Cottier is not able to read
Letter of the Attorney General Eric Cottier of August 8, 2012

Dear Sir,

Since the publication of the books of the journalist Jacques Secretan (Une condamnation bâtie sur du sable – L’affaire Ségalat, 2015, and L’affaire Légeret – Un assassin imaginaire, 2016, both works published by the editor Mon Village) one knows that Mister Cottier is a Master of the art to bundle circumstantial evidences of charge. According to Secretan he should be registered in the Guinness Book of Records for having managed to have two men sentenced exclusively on the basis of his own imagination.

In turn, he has never been able to study files. His mentioned letter demonstrates that this Attorney General is unable to read:

- He is pretending that I was making use of the word «conspiracy» for describing the situation of the judiciary apparatus of Vaud. Enclosed with this letter, I submit to you a copy of my book The unmasked «Constitutional State» to which he refers to implicitly, which he received by mail of February 26, 2016. The word «conspiracy» can’t be found there, nor in any of my written documents enumerated by the Attorney General. I have always stated consistently that 80 % of the blunders of the judiciary apparatus to be caused by arrogance, respectively foolishness. I am exactly on the line of the analysis performed by the famous French Prosecutor Eric de Montgolfier who has described the situation of your apparatus (2nd chapter of my next book, enclosed as an extract to this letter).

- Mr. Cottier insinuates that I was uncritically designating any magistrate to belong to the Mafia. I have pointed out constantly that corruption is an exception, but that it is indeed existing. I have submitted to the Attorney General at various occasions handsome facts, as for instance in my mail of March 21.03.16. You find it published on Internet. Search via Google: «Le Super-Franco-Verda des Vaudois». Obviously, Mr. Cottier is not able to read documents.

The problem is that the Federal Prosecutors' Office is as well in a pretty bad shape. The chairman of its surveying authority, the socialist federal «judge» Niklaus Oberholzer (originating from St. Gallen) – a useful idiot of the system according the appreciations in my mentioned book – has just appointed the socialist Attorney General of St. Gallen, Thomas Hansjakob as an extraordinary Attorney General for investigating about the situation within the Federal Prosecutors' Office (24 Heures of August 10, 2016). The Swiss citizens were gratified by this problematic Prosecutor, extremely dangerous for democracy, to bug nowadays with 'Trojans' in our computers. For sure, Hansjakob will never unveil the corruption cases covered up by the dark chamber of the nation, nor denounce their illegal practice of the double filing etc., since he is member of the corporation.

You are as well in the mould, otherwise, you were not elected to your position. It is therefore likely that you want neither to read this letter or the mentioned documents.

It is up to you.

II. Eric de Mongolfier, Prosecutor of the French Republic came to investigate in the canton of Vaud

The Prosecutor of the French Republic, Eric de Mongolfier became famous for his struggle against the Mafia networks of Freemasonry within the French judicial system and those of the French top politicians. His line of conduct: keep distance. Report quoted by Norbert-Daniel Guillod:

In spring 2013 this well-known Lawyer has been invited by the Association of the Vaudois Lawyers (OAV) as a guest. In the evening, at the public conference held in the former cinema Atlantic Bellefontaine in Lausanne Mr. de Montgolfier was placed on the scene in front where the former scene that he left side Mr. de Montgolfier, visible to all spectators, and to the right side, the Attorney General of Vaud, Eric Cottier was presented.

Eric Cottier was expressing the gratefulness to the famous guest, to have travelled to Lausanne, etc....etc....

Afterwards, Mr. de Montgolfier, Prosecutor of the French Republic was thanking for the invitation of the Association of the Vaudois Lawyers. He said «to have been impressed by this beautiful trip on the lovely lake on this marvellous boat». However, he felt free to comment: «THE LAWYERS, THE POLICE, THE PROSECUTORS, THE PRESIDENTS – THE WHOLS JUDICIARY SYSTEM IN THE SAME BOAT! IN France, THAT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE.»

Thank you Mr. de Montgolfier to have investigated about the situation of the Police and Justice of Vaud. Indeed, all men and women of the Prosecutors' Office, of the top cops, of the auxiliary lawyers and court presidents are sitting in this canton in the same boat, since Eric Cottier, this Zampano of the judicial arena is managing the whole lot jointly with the commanding glove puppet Jean-François Meylan, calling himself President of the cantonal court. They are behaving as the owners of a Vaudois Carntotzet.

Cronyism from one generation to another.
