Role assumed in the affair LÉGERET

BENDANI was one of the «Judges» of the penal court of cassation of the cantonal court VD to have rejected the appeal of François LÉGERET against the condemnation pronounced by the court of COLELOUGH by decision of October 13, 2010 («copy/paste»).

During those deliberations, she intervened energetically for denying any suspicions against Jean-Marc LÉGERET, who is enjoying an obvious advantage out of the present situation.

Yasmina BENDANI has lived in partnership with the father of her child, the Judge Philippe WEISSENBARGER of the Federal Administrative Court. Already at that time, she had carefully hidden this partnership during years. At an unknown date, she has cuckolded him with Philippe COLELOUH. She is again hiding the date of the start of this new liaison.

It is a fact that BENDANI and COLELOUGH know each other for sure since March 2010, when they had been elected on the same day to the positions of Vaudois cantonal «Judges». Pro memoria: the judgment of COLELOUGH, condemning François LÉGERET to lifelong imprisonment is dating from March 18, 2010 and the decision to reject the appeal against this judgment, where BENDANI has worked on, is dating of October 2010.

An article published in the le 24 Heures of May 24, 2014 was unveiling their intimate relation. In August 2014, COLELOUGH resigned from his position as a cantonal Judge, to get placed again at the district court of Lausanne. According to the journalist Patrick NORDMANN, a neighbour of BENDANI had observed the frequent visits of COLELOUGH at the residence of his mistress (articles of August 29 and December 15, 2014), but BENDANI has never wanted to declare the precise date of the beginning of this liaison with COLELOUGH. Her name showed up on the mailbox of COLELOUGH only by the end of 2015.

There exist thus strong hints which leave to suspect that the collusion between COLELOUGH and BENDANI at the costs of François LÉGERET did pollute the judgement of October 13, 2010. The recourse of the present Lawyer of François LÉGERET dating from June 27, 2015 is still outstanding at the Swiss supreme Federal Court.
